

Predicted Wireless Nationwide Voice Service Area

Nationwide Voice Service Legend

The depicted service area is based upon computer generated Radio Frequency coverage predictions. Like all radio technology-based services, factors such as atmospheric conditions, man-made structures, and morphological characteristics may affect actual propagation. Received signal levels are presented in terms of statistical probability and is not a "guarantee" of actual received signal strength at any given location.